

Roosevelt High School: Beyond Black & White

A Documentary Premiere

50 Years Later, Seattle Still Struggles with Race & Diversity

Learn how we can do better in this documentary about race and education, based on the experiences of Roosevelt High School yesterday and today.

Premiere Monday, January 31, 2022 at 7PM PST

Followed by Q&A with Panel of Students, Staff, Parents, & Alumni

Race is one of the burning issues of the day, but does your family talk about it? The topic is uncomfortable and complicated. Yet the conversations need to happen. Young people are entering an increasingly diverse world. To thrive, they must be prepared to work with people who look different or come from different backgrounds.

We invite you, your family, and friends to join us via Zoom on Monday, Jan 31 at 7PM (PST). After a brief introduction by Principal Hollins, we will begin the premier showing of Roosevelt High School: Beyond Black & White. The film is 30 minutes long. To answer questions afterwards, there will be a mixed-race panel of students, alumni, teachers, and others.
